

Arizona Department of Education
John Huppenthal, Superintendent
of Public Instruction

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE

Providing free meals to Arizona children.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP) DESCRIPTION

Schools, private non profits, and local or county governments provide FREE nutritious meals to children (ages 18 and younger) in low-income areas during the summer months when school is not in session.

How
Can
You
Help?

- SPREAD THE WORD
Display posters advertising the availability of FREE meals for children, ages 18 and younger, on the Summer Food Service Program. Contact the SFSP Coordinators at 602-542-8700.
- PARTNER WITH A SITE
Contact your local school district or private non profit to see what services are needed. You can help by volunteering, advertising their specific programs, providing activities at meal sites, etc.
- HELP CHILDREN & FAMILIES FIND SITES
In late May, all summer food service sites can be found by visiting the Arizona Department of Education's SFSP website (see below). Please direct all needy children and families you may encounter.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

To learn more about the Summer Food Service Program, visit www.azsummerfood.gov.

Arizona Department of Education
John Huppenthal, Superintendent
of Public Instruction

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE

Providing free meals to Arizona children.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP) DESCRIPTION

Schools, private non profits, and local or county governments provide FREE nutritious meals to children (ages 18 and younger) in low-income areas during the summer months when school is not in session.

How
Can
You
Help?

- SPREAD THE WORD
Display posters advertising the availability of FREE meals for children, ages 18 and younger, on the Summer Food Service Program. Contact the SFSP Coordinators at 602-542-8700.
- PARTNER WITH A SITE
Contact your local school district or private non profit to see what services are needed. You can help by volunteering, advertising their specific programs, providing activities at meal sites, etc.
- HELP CHILDREN & FAMILIES FIND SITES
In late May, all summer food service sites can be found by visiting the Arizona Department of Education's SFSP website (see below). Please direct all needy children and families you may encounter.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

To learn more about the Summer Food Service Program, visit www.azsummerfood.gov.

Arizona Department of Education
John Huppenthal, Superintendent
of Public Instruction

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE

Providing free meals to Arizona children.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP) DESCRIPTION

Schools, private non profits, and local or county governments provide FREE nutritious meals to children (ages 18 and younger) in low-income areas during the summer months when school is not in session.

How
Can
You
Help?

- SPREAD THE WORD
Display posters advertising the availability of FREE meals for children, ages 18 and younger, on the Summer Food Service Program. Contact the SFSP Coordinators at 602-542-8700.
- PARTNER WITH A SITE
Contact your local school district or private non profit to see what services are needed. You can help by volunteering, advertising their specific programs, providing activities at meal sites, etc.
- HELP CHILDREN & FAMILIES FIND SITES
In late May, all summer food service sites can be found by visiting the Arizona Department of Education's SFSP website (see below). Please direct all needy children and families you may encounter.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

To learn more about the Summer Food Service Program, visit www.azsummerfood.gov.

Arizona Department of Education
John Huppenthal, Superintendent
of Public Instruction

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE

Providing free meals to Arizona children.

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP) DESCRIPTION

Schools, private non profits, and local or county governments provide FREE nutritious meals to children (ages 18 and younger) in low-income areas during the summer months when school is not in session.

How
Can
You
Help?

- SPREAD THE WORD
Display posters advertising the availability of FREE meals for children, ages 18 and younger, on the Summer Food Service Program. Contact the SFSP Coordinators at 602-542-8700.
- PARTNER WITH A SITE
Contact your local school district or private non profit to see what services are needed. You can help by volunteering, advertising their specific programs, providing activities at meal sites, etc.
- HELP CHILDREN & FAMILIES FIND SITES
In late May, all summer food service sites can be found by visiting the Arizona Department of Education's SFSP website (see below). Please direct all needy children and families you may encounter.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

To learn more about the Summer Food Service Program, visit www.azsummerfood.gov.