RE: 2005 Summer Food Service Program and the Outreach Day

Although it seems the winter break from school just ended, some students may already be thinking about the long summer break ahead. When the school year ends, the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) comes to a close. This means approximately 850,000 children who were eligible for a free or reduced priced lunch may now be wondering what to do for lunch during the summer. Here at ADE, we are getting excited thinking about summer and the start of the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP).

If you would like to learn more or have previously been a sponsor of SFSP, the 2nd Annual Outreach Day will be on Tuesday March 22, 2005 from 9 am until noon at the Health and Nutrition Services Building in Phoenix. The focus this year is to help sponsors increase participation in rural areas and among faith-based organizations. In addition to the keynote speakers, the outreach day will include a panel of experienced SFSP sponsors who will present information about prior successes with the program. This exciting and informative day is one worth attending!

Enclosed with this memo is a flyer regarding the Outreach Day and the 2005 SFSP Workshop Schedule.
